(2) [NAME OF CONSULTANT]

Agreement for the provision of Owner's Engineer and Employer's Representative services relating to the ICGB Interconnector Project

Prepared by DLA Piper UK LLP using elements of The Federation Internationale des Ingenieurs-Conseils (FIDIC) Client/Consultant Model Services Agreement Fifth Edition 2017 with due permission of FIDIC

NOTE: ICGB AD is not following the standard template for services agreements published by the Public Procurement Agency and approved by the Bulgarian Minister of Finance due to the international character of the Project; the transboundary effect of the pipeline and the complexity of the construction. Based on the strategic importance of the Project, as well as of the nature of the works, supplies and services required for the timely completion of the entire Project, ICGB AD is using the international standard forms of contracts issued by the International Federation of the Consulting Engineers (FIDIC) for some of the public procurements which will be awarded during implementation of the Project.

The Consultant shall provide full supporting evidence with the Notice. Within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the Notice the Client shall either issue a Variation Notice, or cancel the instruction or direction, or state by issue of a further Notice why the Client considers the instruction, direction or circumstance does not constitute a Variation to the Services, and where the Client fails to respond to the Consultant with either a Variation Notice or a further Notice within such period, he shall be deemed to have notified the Consultant that the instruction, direction or circumstance does not constitute a Variation to the Services. In such case the Consultant shall comply with and be bound by such further Notice unless the Consultant refers the matter as a Dispute under Clause 10 [Disputes and Arbitration] within seven (7) days of receipt of such further Notice or (where the Client fails to respond to the Consultant's initial Notice) upon the expiry of the fourteen (14) day period referred to above.

- 5.2.4 Where agreement under Sub-Clause 5.2.3 is not reached within fourteen (14) days of receipt by the Consultant of the Variation Notice or it is not practicable to establish and agree between the Parties all the effects of the Variation prior to the Consultant commencing work on the Variation then the Client may by Notice instruct the Consultant to commence work on the Variation and the Consultant shall comply with such instruction. The Consultant shall be compensated on a time spent basis at the rates stated in Appendix 3 [Remuneration and Payment] until such time as agreement is reached on all the effects of the Variation.
- 5.2.5 The value of any Variation once agreed and confirmed in writing by the Client to the Consultant shall represent the Consultant's sole entitlement to payment in respect of the Services to which the Variation relates.

9.1.8 Neither failure to comply nor full compliance with the provisions of this Clause 9 shall relieve the Consultant of his liabilities and obligations under this Agreement.

10. DISPUTES AND ARBITRATION

10.1 Amicable Dispute Resolution

10.1.1 If any dispute, difference or claim arises out of or in connection with this Agreement (including, without limitation, any question regarding its existence, validity or termination), whether contractual or non-contractual (a "Dispute"), then senior representatives of the Parties with authority to settle the Dispute shall, within twenty eight (28) days of a written request from one Party to the other, meet in order to attempt to resolve the Dispute amicably.

10.1.2 If the Dispute is not resolved within fifty six (56) days of receipt of the written request, then either Party may refer the Dispute to adjudication in accordance with Clause 10.2 [Adjudication], even if the meeting referred to in Sub-Clause 10.1.1 has not taken place.

10.2 Adjudication

10.2.1 Unless settled amicably, any Dispute may be referred by either Party to adjudication in accordance with the Rules for Adjudication in Appendix 5 [Rules for Adjudication]. The adjudicator shall be agreed between the Parties or failing agreement shall be appointed in accordance with the said Rules for Adjudication. The agreement between the Parties and the adjudicator shall incorporate by reference the General Conditions of Dispute Adjudication Agreement contained in Appendix 6 [General Conditions of Dispute Adjudication Agreement], with such amendments as are agreed between them.

10.2.2 The Parties shall bear their own costs arising out of the adjudication and the adjudicator shall not be empowered to award costs to either Party. Without prejudice to the above, the adjudicator may decide which Party shall bear the adjudicator's fees and in what proportion.

10.2.3 If either Party is dissatisfied with the adjudicator's decision:

- 10.2.3.1 the dissatisfied Party may give a notice of dissatisfaction to the other Party, with a copy to the adjudicator;
- 10.2.3.2 this notice shall state that it is a "Notice of Dissatisfaction with the Adjudicator's Decision" and shall set out the matter in dispute and the reason(s) for dissatisfaction; and
- 10.2.3.3 this notice shall be given within twenty eight (28) days of receiving the adjudicator's decision.
- 10.2.4 If the adjudicator fails to give its decision within the period stated in the Rules for Adjudication, then either Party may, within twenty eight (28) days of this period expiring, give a notice to the other Party in accordance with Sub-Clauses 10.2.3.1 and 10.2.3.2 above.
- 10.2.5 Except as stated in Clause 10.5 [Failure to Comply with Adjudicator's Decision], neither Party shall be entitled to commence arbitration of a Dispute unless a notice in respect of that Dispute has been given in accordance with Sub-Clause 10.2.3 or 10.2.4. If such a notice has been given, and neither Party commences arbitration of the Dispute within one hundred and eighty two (182) days of giving or receiving the notice, such notice shall be deemed to have lapsed and no longer be valid.
- 10.2.6 Whether a Notice of Dissatisfaction with the adjudicator's decision has been issued or not by either Party, any adjudicator's decision shall become binding on both Parties upon its release.
- 10.2.7 If the adjudicator has given its decision as to a matter in dispute to both Parties, and no notice under Sub-Clause 10.2.3 has been given by either Party within twenty eight (28) days of receiving the adjudicator's decision, then the decision shall become final and binding on both Parties.
- 10.2.8 Adjudication may be commenced before or after completion of the Services. The obligations of the Parties shall not be altered by reason of any adjudication being conducted during the progress of the Services.

10.3 Amicable Settlement

Where a notice has been given under Sub-Clause 10.2.3 [Adjudication] or 10.2.4 [Adjudication], both Parties shall attempt to settle the Dispute amicably before the commencement of arbitration. However, unless both Parties agree otherwise, arbitration may be commenced on or after the twenty-eighth (28th) day after the day on which this notice was given, even if no attempt at amicable settlement has been made.

10.4 Arbitration

- 10.4.1 Unless settled amicably, subject to Clause 10.2 [Adjudication] and Clause 10.5 [Failure to Comply with Adjudicator's Decision], any Dispute in respect of which the adjudicator's decision (if any) has not become final and binding shall be referred to and finally resolved by international arbitration. Unless otherwise agreed by both Parties:
- 10.4.1.1 the Dispute shall be finally settled under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce;

- 10.4.1.2 the seat of the arbitration shall be Vienna;
- 10.4.1.3 the Dispute shall be settled by one arbitrator appointed in accordance with these Rules; and
- 10.4.1.4 the arbitration shall be conducted in English.
- 10.4.2 The arbitrator shall have full power to open up, review and revise any ruling or decision of the adjudicator.
- 10.4.3 In any award dealing with costs of the arbitration, the arbitrator may take account of the extent (if any) to which a Party failed to cooperate with the other Party in appointing the adjudicator under Clause 10.2 [Adjudication].
- 10.4.4 Neither Party shall be limited in the proceedings before the arbitrator to the evidence or arguments previously put before the adjudicator to obtain its decision, or to the reasons for dissatisfaction given in the Party's notice under Sub-Clause 10.2 [Adjudication]. Any decision of the adjudicator shall be admissible in evidence in the arbitration.
- 10.4.5 Arbitration may be commenced before or after completion of the Services. The obligations of the Parties shall not be altered by reason of any arbitration being conducted during the progress of the Services.
- 10.4.6 This Sub-Clause 10.4 shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of England and Wales.

10.5 Failure to Comply with Adjudicator's Decision

- 10.5.1 In the event that a Party fails to comply with any decision of the adjudicator, whether binding or final and binding, then the other Party may, without prejudice to any other rights it may have, refer the failure itself directly to arbitration under Clause 10.4 [Arbitration] and Clause 10.1 [Amicable Dispute Resolution], Clause 10.2 [Adjudication] and Clause 10.3 [Amicable Settlement] shall not apply to this reference. The arbitrator appointed under Clause 10.4 [Arbitration] shall have the power, by way of summary or other expedited procedure, to order, whether by an interim or provisional measure or an award (as may be appropriate under the applicable law or otherwise), the enforcement of that decision.
- 10.5.2 In the case of a binding but not final decision of the adjudicator, such interim or provisional measure or award shall be subject to the express reservation that the rights of the Parties as to the merits of the Dispute are reserved until they are resolved by an award.
- 10.5.3 Any interim or provisional measure or award enforcing a decision of the adjudicator which has not been complied with, whether such decision is binding or final and binding, may also order or award damages or other relief.

IN WITNESS whereof, the Parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed as a deed the day and year stated above.

- (3) As soon as possible after he has reached a decision, the adjudicator shall deliver a copy of that decision to each of the Parties.

Adjudicator's decision

20. The adjudicator shall decide the matters in Dispute. He may take into account any other matters which the Parties agree should be within the scope of the adjudication or which are matters under this Agreement which he considers are necessarily connected with the Dispute. In particular, he may:
 - (a) open up, revise and review any decision taken or any certificate given by any person referred to in this Agreement unless this Agreement states that the decision or certificate is final and conclusive;

- (b) decide that any of the parties to the Dispute is liable to make a payment under this Agreement (in the currency of this Agreement) and when that payment is due and the final date for payment; and/or
 - (c) having regard to any term of this Agreement relating to the payment of interest decide the circumstances in which, and the rates at which, and the periods for which simple or compound rates of interest shall be paid.

24. The adjudicator shall treat the details of this Agreement and all activities and hearings of the adjudicator as confidential and shall not disclose the same without the prior written consent of the Parties. The adjudicator shall not, without the consent of the Parties, assign or delegate any of his work under these Rules or engage legal or technical assistance.

26. If the adjudicator shall knowingly breach any of the provisions of Rule 12(a) or act in bad faith, he shall not be entitled to any fees or expenses hereunder and shall reimburse each of the Parties for any fees and expenses properly paid to him if, as a consequence of such breach any proceedings or decisions of the adjudicator are rendered void or ineffective.

Payment
